

Name : Ezzat Hassan
Language level : Beginners
Lesson title : Eid Al Adha Feast

Grade level: 9Th- 12Th
Mentor High School

Step 1 : Desired Results

Lesson goals

By the end of the lesson student will be able to :

Students talk about feasts in the Arab and Islamic world .

They will be able to congratulate Arabs and Muslims in their Feasts saying Eid Mubarak.

Students will be able to compare their celebrations with Arabs celebrations.

Essential Questions:

What is Eid Al Adha?

Why do Muslims Celebrate Eid Al Adha?

What do people say to each other?

How do Arabs celebrate their feasts?

Why do people sacrifice an animal on that day ?

What else do Muslims do on that day?

Lesson Objectives: Students will be able to:

Learn about Eid Al Adha Feast.

Know why Muslims celebrate this day.

Know how Muslims celebrate Eid Al Adha .

Step 2—Assessment Evidence

Performance task:

Communication:

Interpretive:

Students will listen to the song of Eid Mubarak and will try to recognize Arabic words.

Interpersonal:

Students will work in pairs, ask and answer these questions:

What is Eid Al adha?

Why do Muslims Celebrate Eid Al adha?

How do Arabs celebrate their feasts?

Why do people sacrifice an animal on that day?

What else do Muslims do on that day?

Step 3 : Learning Plan

Materials used:

Videos

Verses from the Holy Koraan

New Vocabulary:

عيد سعيد - خروف العيد - اضحيه - عيد مبارك

Learning Activities:

- Students will listen to The Eid song.
- I ask what Arabic words they can recognize
- I will talk about Al Adha Feast using videos and songs.
- I encourage students to ask me any questions about such occasions. I will also encourage them to talk about their feasts and celebrations.

Review/ Discuss/clarify:

- Students will talk about what they knew about Al Adha Feast through asking and answering questions .

I will also answer any other questions students my have.

Step 4 : Reflection

The students were very responsive. They learned well. They were very excited to learn about Eid Al adha and were really so engaged.

They Sang while watching the Eid song.

I learned that through sharing information about cultures brings about better harmony and understanding