

High School Resource Box Contents Checklist

This is a list of the items that could be found in a high school level Resource Box. Please note that each box contains a variety of materials, so the box will contain some, not all, of the following items.

Disclaimer: The materials in the Resource Box have not been vetted for quality or appropriateness. QFI is not endorsing the resources included and they should not be viewed as recommended resources. The box represents only a sample of the many materials available to teach Arabic, with the sole intent to display and expose teachers to the variety of resources. It is highly recommended that teachers review all materials before using.
